EXAMINATION DATE: March 17, 2018 EXAM NUMBER: 77406

VACANCY: There are no vacancies at the present time. Eligible list will be used to fill future vacancies as they occur.

DUTIES: This is an important administrative position involving administration and direction of a small city police department. Work is performed under general direction of the Mayor in conjunction with policies established by the Common Council, and includes supervision over the work of others. Does related work as required.

RESIDENCY: Must be a legal resident of the City of Norwich within six months of permanent appointment.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Must have ten (10) years experience as a police officer as defined in the state Code of Criminal Law. Candidates must be permanently employed in the competitive class of the Norwich Police Department and must have served on a permanent basis for two years as a Sergeant or one year as the Assistant Police Chief.

NOTE: Graduation from a regionally accredited or New York State registered college with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice, police science, police administration, or a related field may be substituted for four years of experience as a police officer; or an associate's degree in criminal justice, police science, police administration or a related field may be substituted for two years of experience as a police officer.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS: Must possess a valid New York State Class D driver's license at time of appointment.

WRITTEN TEST WILL COVER: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

1. Knowledge of law enforcement methods, practices and procedures

These questions test for knowledge of accepted police methods and practices and/or their application to situations in the police field. The questions are a sampling of the various knowledge that police personnel may be required to possess in the course of their day-to-day, work-related activities. Areas covered include investigation procedures, patrol techniques, police-community relations, courtroom procedures, personnel practices, policy making and budgeting procedures.

2. Knowledge of New York State laws

These questions test the candidates' knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2018. This portion of the test is a sampling of the various sections of the law that police personnel may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities. Laws covered may include the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Vehicle and Traffic Law, Family Court Act, and other laws relevant to law enforcement in New York State.

3. Police Administrative Supervision and Administration

These questions test for the knowledge of managerial functions involved in directing the operations of a B or C level police department as well as the knowledge of the principles and practices involved in supervising a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. These questions cover such areas as: developing objectives and formulating policies; forecasting and planning; organizing and coordinating; informing and instructing; guiding and leading; decision-making and problem solving; communicating effectively; staffing and staff development; time management; assigning work and evaluating performance; handling conflict and grievances; and budgeting.

4. Job simulation exercises in police administration and command

Against the background of knowledge required for the position, this will include two job simulation exercises that cover such areas as: human resources management, management of operations, problem-solving, decision-making under pressure, public relations, and police procedure.

5. Understanding and interpreting written material

These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.

6. Preparing written material in a police setting

These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police personnel write. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order of the sentences.

P. E. R. C. Statement

The final rating key for this examination will be established by the State Civil Service Commission prior to the testing date, upon recommendation of a committee of police experts who will review all the questions for appropriateness and accuracy. There will be no review of the questions by candidates. The committee was selected with the assistance and endorsement of the Police Conference of New York, Inc., the New York State Association of PBAs, Inc., and the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc.

A Guide for the Written Test for Police Chief/Assistant Chief is available at the New York State website: www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm . Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.
